BILLING CODE 6450-01-P

Issuance of Proposed Decision and Order; Week of March 13 Through March 17, 1995

During the week of March 13 through March 17, 1995, the proposed decision and order summarized below was issued by the Office of Hearings and Appeals of the Department of Energy with regard to an application for exception.

Under the procedural regulations that apply to exception proceedings (10 CFR part 205, subpart D), any person who will be aggrieved by the issuance of a proposed decision and order in final form may file a written notice of objection within ten days of service. For purposes of the procedural regulations, the date of service of notice is deemed to be the date of publication of this Notice or the date an aggrieved person receives actual notice, whichever occurs first.

The procedural regulations provide that an aggrieved party who fails to file a Notice of Objection within the time period specified in the regulations will be deemed to consent to the issuance of the proposed decision and order in final form. An aggrieved party who wishes to contest a determination made in a proposed decision and order must also file a detailed statement of objections within 30 days of the date of service of the proposed decision and order. In the statement of objections, the aggrieved party must specify each issue of fact or law that it intends to contest in any further proceeding involving the exception matter.

Copies of the full text of this proposed decision and order are available in the Public Reference Room of the Office of Hearings and Appeals, room 1E-234, Forrestal Building, 1000 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC. 20585, Monday through Friday, between the hours of 1 p.m. and 5 p.m., except federal holidays.

Dated: April 18, 1995.

George B. Breznay,
Director, Office of Hearings and Appeals.
Home Oil Co., Inc., Ashford, AL, LEE-0135, Reporting Requirements

Home Oil Co., Inc. (Home Oil), filed an Application for Exception from filing Form EIA-782B, "Reseller's/Retailers' Monthly Petroleum Products Sales Report." The exception request, if granted, would relieve Home Oil from filing the Form. On March 13, 1995, the Department of Energy issued a Proposed Decision and Order which determined that the exception request be denied.

[Docket No. RP95-235-000]

Algonquin Gas Transmission Company; Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

April 19, 1995.

Take notice that on April 13, 1995, Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1, the following revised tariff sheets, with a proposed effective date of May 13, 1995:

Twentieth Revised Sheet No. 20A
Original Sheet No. 98H

Algonquin states that the purpose of this filing is to (i) recover upstream transition costs of $19,785.39 billed to Algonquin by Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern), (ii) recover Order No. 528 upstream costs of $706.19 billed to Algonquin by Texas Eastern and (iii) flow through a refund of Order No. 528 upstream costs of $22,276.40 allocated to Algonquin by Texas Eastern. Algonquin requests that the Commission grant any waiver that may be necessary to place these tariff sheets into effect on the date requested.

Algonquin states that copies of this filing were mailed to all customers of Algonquin and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with 18 CFR §§ 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before April 26, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Columbia Gulf Transmission Company; Compliance Filing

April 19, 1995.

Take notice that on April 13, 1995, Columbia Gulf Transmission Company (Columbia Gulf) tendered for filing in compliance with the Commission's March 29, 1995, letter order in this proceeding. On March 1 and March 13, 1995, Columbia Gulf submitted tariff sheets reflecting an annual Transportation Retainage Adjustment (TRA). The March 29, 1995 letter order accepted and suspended those filings to be effective April 1, 1995, subject to Columbia Gulf providing additional explanation and data.

Columbia Gulf states that in this compliance filing it is providing additional workpapers, supporting data and explanations as required by the March 29, 1995 letter order.

Columbia Gulf states that copies of this filing have been mailed to all firm customers and affected state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such protests should be filed on or before April 26, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of Columbia Gulf's filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket Nos. RP94-157-004 and RP95-196-002]

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

April 19, 1995.

Take notice that on April 13, 1995, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheet, to be effective April 1, 1995.

Second Revised Sheet No. 453

Columbia states that the instant filing is being made in compliance with the Commission's order issued March 17, 1995, in Docket Nos. RP94-157, et al. Ordering Paragraph (C) required that within 30 days from the date of the order, Columbia make a tariff filing to modify the Transportation Costs Recovery Adjustment (TCRA) mechanism as discussed in the body of the order. Specifically, the order required Columbia to revise its TCRA, on a prospective basis, to require Columbia to include its estimate of capacity release revenue when projecting its stranded Account Number 858 costs in future TCRA filings. Columbia states that Sheet No. 453 revises the language in Section 36.3(1) of its General Terms and Conditions (GTC) in accordance with this requirement.

Columbia states that copies of its filing have been mailed to each of its firm customers and interested State Commissions.

Any person desiring to protest this filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with § 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed on or before April 26, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
